NOTICE REGARDING RELATED PRO SE CASES

By Order entered May 25, 2021, this Court directed undersigned counsel to contact each unrepresented individual with an action pending in either the Eastern District of Virginia or the Western District of Virginia to determine if the pro se plaintiff would like and accept assistance from the VEC in resolving that matter and any outstanding UI claim in accordance with the process outlined in the Order entered pursuant to Judicial Mediation. (ECF 24-1, ¶ 19).

Undersigned counsel reports that they have successfully contacted twenty of the twenty-eight individuals listed on the chart below. As indicated, most of the pro se plaintiffs desire assistance from the VEC in resolving their claims. While Plaintiffs' counsel here do not represent the pro se plaintiffs in these other matters and they are not parties here, the VEC has represented to Plaintiffs' counsel and to the Court that if these matters were stayed by the forum court sua sponte without required responses to pending defense motions or other action by either the pro se plaintiffs or the VEC, the VEC will adjudicate and attempt to process and resolve each such matter within 45 days in accordance with paragraph 18 of the Order regarding Settlement Pursuant to Judicial Mediation (ECF 24-1).

To this end, the following chart is provided to the Court and counsel for the VEC to facilitate resolution of the underlying claims for unemployment benefits. The pro se plaintiffs with a “Y” in the “Needs VEC assistance” column have indicated to Plaintiffs’ counsel their consent to consolidate and/or transfer of that case to this one, if the venue court does so sua sponte.
